4. EVALUATION OF QUALIFICATIONS AND INTERVIEWS

4.1 Preliminary compliance checks

Once the deadline for the application to this vacancy announcement as well as the deadline possibly set with regards to the procedures for remedying deficiencies have expired, AICS Cairo Head of Office (the responsible for the whole procedure), evaluates the admissibility of each application with regards to the fulfillment of the essential requirements and the absence of conditions for exclusion.

The list of eligible candidates is published on the AICS website and does not require further communications to candidates, both admitted and excluded.

The Evaluation Committee is appointed by AICS Cairo Head of Office following the expiry of the deadline of the present vacancy announcement.

4.2 Evaluation

The Evaluation Committee evaluates the eligible applications by assigning an overall score of maximum 30 points for each candidate, according to the methods specified below. The scores are assigned without using decimals.

QUALIFICATIONS (max 15 points)

- Relevance and pertinence of the professional experience, wherever acquired, suitable for the fulfillment of the assignment (max 7 points).
- Relevance and pertinence of the professional experience, acquired in an AICS office, suitable for the fulfillment of the assignment (max 3 points).
- Language and IT skills (max 2 points).
- Other qualifications of professional skills relevant for the fulfillment of the assignment (max 3 points).

INTERVIEW (max 15 points)

The candidates admitted to the selection are invited, via email, for an interview following which a maximum score of 15 points is attributed.

The interview takes place at AICS Cairo premises or remotely (in audio-video connection), at the candidate's choice, in the language indicated as an essential requirement by the vacancy announcement (even more than one if applicable).

The interview, which may also include technical-practical tests, is aimed at assessing the candidate's wealth of knowledge and experience, the skills to carry out the assignment in question, the required language skills, interpersonal skills and anything else deemed necessary to evaluate the candidate's profile with respect to the position to be filled.

Failure to attend the interview on the date and time set, in the absence of valid reasons (which are in any case subject to the unquestionable evaluation of the Committee with regards to their eventual acceptance or rejection), is considered as a renouncement by the candidate to proceed with the selection.

Candidates are not entitled to reimbursement of any expenses incurred to support the interview.

5. RESULTS OF THE SELECTION

Candidates scoring at least 10/15 points in the framework of the interview will be included in the final ranking of endorsed candidates.

The ranking is drawn up in descending order of the overall scores obtained by the candidates for their qualifications and interviews. In the event of an equal overall score, precedence is granted to the candidate who obtained the highest score in the interview and, in the event of a further tie, to the candidate of younger age.

The ranking is published on the AICS website and does not require further communication to candidates. The ranking remains valid for one year: AICS Cairo office has the right to extend the validity period of the ranking for a further year in case of specific and justified needs related to the implementation of the Programme. In case of renouncement of the selected candidate or early termination of the contract, the office can proceed down the ranking, if the necessary financial resources are available.

The selected candidate will be invited by AICS Cairo to submit the necessary documentation for the completion of hiring procedures.

In any case, the employment contract will not be signed with a selected candidate whose age is higher than the one fixed for retirement by the social security law(s) to be applied in relation to the specific situation of the candidate, or if such age will be acquired within the established term of the same contract.

6. PERSONAL DATA

By submitting the application, the candidate gives his/her unambiguous consent to the processing of his/her personal data, including sensitive data, by the staff assigned to the custody and storage of applications, and to their use for the purpose of the selection process. The responsible for the processing of personal data is the AICS Cairo Head of Office.

The processing of personal data for the purposes of admission to the examination tests and possible hiring will be based on the principles of lawfulness, correctness, and transparency to protect the fundamental rights of natural persons.

For these reasons, the following information is provided:

1. The joint data controllers are the Director of AICS and AICS Cairo Head of Office.
2. For any questions or complaints regarding the processing of personal data, the interested party can write to the Data Protection Officer/Personal Data Protection Officer (DPO) of AICS, at the email address: dpo@aics.gov.it.
3. The personal data processed have as sole purpose the admission to the examination tests for candidates and the management of the employment for the selected candidate.
4. Data processing is carried out by specifically appointed personnel.
5. The personal data of the selected candidate will be communicated to the persons/institutions required by Italian and local legislation: lawyers of trust for defense before the local court, private insurance companies for the obligations referred to in the art. 158 of the Italian Presidential Decree no. 18/1967; INPS, INAIL, local social security/welfare bodies, local authorities for any necessary obligations.
6. For non-selected candidates, in the absence of other regulatory references, the data will be deleted 5 years after the end of the selection procedure, taking into account the articles no. 157, 161 and 317 of the Italian Penal Code, while for reasons of legal security, the data of the selected candidates are kept in their respective personal files for a period pursuant to art. 68 of the Italian Presidential Decree no. 445/2000.
